Hello RST Kiwanis - I will not be at Kiwanis for 3 to 5 more weeks. Tonight I watched the mighty Kiwanis little league team battle the Road Materials. Kiwanis won in an exciting 12 to 8 comeback. The star player of the night was Gage, my great nephew!! How exciting!! Del Lawson

Longtime friend of RST Kiwanis and Key Club Advisor at Mayo High School, Jen Gaul. (Sorry Jen, I don't know your married name or if you use it.)

Jennifer gave a nice presentation about the activities and challenges of their Key Club during the pandemic. As usual, she has 50 plus students that are interested enough in Key Club to spend some of their spare time in its activities related to the overall goal of Kiwanis, "Kiwanis is a Global Organization of Volunteers dedicated to making a better World one Child and one community at a time."

Jen has done a great job over the past 15-20 years for the Key Club and the parent club, us. We really appreciate what she continues to do with her 'students' with their well-being first in mind. She loves her students and really cares for them. They reciprocate the care and respect.

Jen is a much busier Lady these days. Since we first met her, she has gotten married, had a baby, and continues teaching. Thanks again, Jen. They are meeting weekly after Covid subsides. Every 2 weeks was not working well.
